3D Content is King – How can you monetise 3D models?

Amsterdam – The 3rd edition of the 3D printing Content Conference organised by Jakajima will take place on October 4, 2017, at B.Amsterdam, in Amsterdam, The Netherlands.

It is a half-day conference (13.00 to 18.00) about the creation of 3D Printing content – design and 3D modelling software, distribution of content, 3D printing content as part of merchandising (gaming industry), 3D printing & Industry 4.0.

3D printing makes it possible to revolutionise the manufacturing industry and during the conference case studies from existing companies and from startups will be presented.

The program features speakers from Shapeways, 3D Hubs, FabZat, MyMiniFactory, White Lioness technologies. “3D Printing for games & selfies”, “Implementing mass-customisation and industry 4.0” , “Estimating manufacturability for large scale 3D printing” are only a few of the presentation titles.
